Dear

Subject: TCN and Housing

STAT

Your HOUSING log note of 4 August certainly raised many eyebrows! It's been my understanding, however, that this has been one major issue hidden behind the SOFA--if you'll pardon the expression--all along. Please keep us fully posted on the subject.

Meantime, if you were to crystal-ball it, how would you predict the outcome? How do you see the scenario unfold and what would we do in such a circumstance? Further, how long do you think will be unaffected?
